

Grant Applications

SES-1061817. Decision and Risk Management Science. National Science Foundation. "From decision theory to personality based decision theory." $452,828 total direct costs. Aldo Rustichini, Principal Investigator. April 2011–March 2014.

Funder – NIH- National Institute on Drug Abuse
Title: Neural and genetic mechanisms of cognition in externalizing behavior
Dates: 3/1/11-8/29/12
Award amount: $226,500.00

Funder: University of Oklahoma (Prime - Templeton Religion Trust)
Title: Personal Projects and the Development of Virtue: How Characteristic Adaptations Enact and Encourage Virtue
Dates: 09/01/15 – 12/31/17
Award Amount: $189,999.00

Funder: University of Virginia (Prime John Templeton Foundation)
Title: Genetics, Cybernetics, and Virtue: Toward a Biologically Grounded Theory of Well-Being
Dates: 9/1/16 – 12/31/19
Award Amount: $349,999.00

Funder: Linfield College (Prime Linfield College)
Title: The Role of Endogenous Opiates and Trait Affiliation in Social Bonding
Dates: 11/01/17 – 11/1/19
Award Amount: $5,000.00